I shall be telling this with a sigh.
Somewhere ages and ages hence
Two roads diverged in a wood and I,
I took the one less traveled by.
And that has made all the difference.

JAMBO

(Swahili word meaning "Hello")

Traveling to 75 countries has given me incredible and indelible experiences that have forever changed my life. When my parents asked what I learned from my first overseas journey I replied, "I no longer have the right to complain about anything."

Jambo Productions performs for schools, universities, civic groups, prisons and corporations across the U.S.A. - we conduct 100 engagements annually. Our goals are to educate, motivate and inspire by immersing audiences in the wonders and cultures of the world while espousing a powerful message regarding tolerance, respect and appreciation.

As reported in the New York Times, Newsday and radio stations, Jambo Productions looks forward to sharing our passion for education and travel with you.

Created by Michael Harrold, a photographer, writer, educator, raconteur, world-traveler and a licensed teacher (Secondary Social Studies), Jambo Productions continues to explore the world and expand its programs.

Programs:

Multicultural journeys to Africa, Asia and Latin America. Presentations – assembly and/or workshops - are 45 to 75 minutes and appropriate for Grades K–University. Programs can be customized to incorporate academic standards, curricula, topics and themes (in New York State Grade 3 - Communities of the World; Grade 5 - Latin America and the Rain Forest; Grade 6 - Ancient Civilizations (Egypt, China, and India); Grades 9/10 - Global Studies/World History (Religions of the Non-Western World/Global Studies Regents Review).

Jambo Productions is an accredited presenter with New York State BOCES and programs are eligible for New York State BOCES reimbursement.

Staff development: Celebrating World Cultures and Incorporating Multicultural Education in the Classroom.

Cost: $1300 - $2500 per diem. (Travel expenses may be additional.)

Description / Objective:

A unique and enthralling interactive exploration of the world that combines photography (via Powerpoint), artifacts (a traveling museum) and anecdotes (what stories!) to educate, motivate and promote multicultural awareness and respect. Audiences “journey” to places they never knew existed, are shown the realities of the developing world and are inspired with a sense of appreciation for what they have. Programs focus on culture juxtaposing the timeless traditions of rural life with the modern, urban setting and bring textbooks, curricula and learning to life.
